

Political Science Regional Workshop

Wednesday, May 12, 2004

C-103 Hesburgh Center

Wednesday, May 12

- 9:00 am Susan Stokes, University of Chicago, and Matthew Cleary, University of Chicago
“Trust and the Consolidation of Democracy”
- 9:50 am Daniel Brinks, University of Notre Dame
“Building the Rule of Law One Case at a Time: The Judicial Response to Police Killings in São Paulo”
- 10:40 am Edward Gibson, Northwestern University
“Subnational Authoritarianism: Dilemmas of Territorial Governance in Contemporary Democracies”
- 11:40 am Michael Coppedge, University of Notre Dame; Angel Alvarez, University of Notre Dame; and Claudia Maldonado, University of Notre Dame
“Two Persistent Dimensions of Democracy”
- 12:40 pm Lunch
- 1:50 pm Frances Hagopian, University of Notre Dame
“Economic Liberalization, Party Competition, and Elite Partisan Cleavages: Brazil in Comparative (Latin American) Perspective”
- 2:40 pm Matthew Cleary, University of Chicago
“Electoral Competition, Participation, and the Quality of Government in Mexico”
- 3:40 pm Andrés Mejía Acosta, University of Notre Dame
“Ghost Coalitions and Party Brokers in the Making of Economic Reforms: the Case of Ecuador”